

Desert Dispatch February Newsletter

HAPPY
BLACK HISTORY
MONTH and
VALENTINE'S DAY
2003!!

If you need me for anything, call me, Cheryl Smith, at: 951-6267

Hope your February is GREAT!

Some Good Information

I recently learned, for those of you who are interested, that your local cities provide recycling bins to your school sites free of charge. Many of you have asked me about it in the past, so here is the information. If you want to set up the service, call your local city's Solid Waste Manager.

Calendar In Brief

- President's Day Poster
 Monday, February 17.
 If you would like to receive this poster and do not receive Monday papers, please call me by 2/13, so we can get that day delivered to you.

- Black History Month-February
 If you would like to receive special papers Feb 12-14 and Feb 19-21 with black history features, please call me by February 7.

- NIE Week
 March 3 -7

All classrooms receive newspapers for the week with daily newspaper challenges. Lots of prizes can be won.

Keep your eyes open for all of the fun stuff!

FOR ALL TEACHERS

CALL AND GET YOUR EXTRA
 SUBSCRIPTION
 DAY FREE.

If you are already receiving newspapers at least once a day, we will send you another day of your choice for FREE.

Also,
 You can receive the Sunday paper FREE as well.

Call Me ASAP, as funding is limited.
 951-6267

REMINDER

Please remember to read the blue, top sheets that are found on top of your paper. This keeps us connected by allowing me to keep you up to date with upcoming activities and contests.